

VERTICAL DIMENSION OF LEADERSHIP

“The human voice can never reach the distance that is covered by the still, small voice of conscience.” Mahatma Gandhi

“I am convinced that the universe is under the control of a loving purpose, and that in the struggle for righteousness man has cosmic companionship.” Martin Luther King Jr.

DEFINITION:

The Vertical Dimension of Leadership is the dimension of ‘being’. It’s the source, the essence, the divine, if you will.

Its nature is oneness and wholeness, where nothing is excluded and all is included. It’s entire, complete unto itself, with no beginning or end; no exceptions and no division.

It’s is the playing field of the soul, a loving neutral inner Presence, which we often project out in the image of a Creator separated from us. We trap ourselves to believe “it’s not about me”, because we see ourselves as victims of a chaotic Creation, where Creator and Created are different entities.

When we recognize that Creator and Created are one of the same, we identify with something far greater within ourselves. We take greater responsibility and acknowledge that “it starts with me” and, in fact, “it’s all about me”. After all, the choice to step into the Vertical Leadership of a loving neutral inner Presence of the soul is ultimately ours.

The experience of the Vertical Dimension takes place beyond time and space. It’s ethereal, infinite, atemporal and unmeasurable. It is in the very now, in this moment, in the present.

In the Vertical Dimension, we simply are....we are beyond the body, the emotions and the thoughts. We are that which has been beating our hearts even before we actually had a heart.

The Vertical Dimension represents the ‘feminine energy’ or the ‘right brain’ whereby things are seen through intuition, creativity, imagination, movement and sounds.

In the Vertical Dimension, we have the opportunity to heal, renew and re-charge the drainage that naturally occurs in the Horizontal Dimension.
