

COMMAND & CONTROL STYLE OF LEADERSHIP

LESSON: “LEADERSHI T”

“Power is a dangerous thing. Be careful that you don’t abuse it or let it make a tyrant of you.”

Louisa May Alcott

“The greater the power, the more dangerous the abuse.” Edmund Burke

DEFINITION:

LeadershiT is a direct result of the unconscious imbalance of our anti-powers and superpowers.

This imbalance causes us to perpetuate patterns that don’t serve us; and it can turn the power of inspiration into the force of manipulation.

Distinguishing power & inspiration from force & manipulation can be a tricky thing, because they initially manifest in very similar ways, but produce quite different results.

Inwardly, LeadershiT is fueled by the unattended voices within, which create a background ‘white’ noise that is constantly and quietly influencing our choices, often in tyrannical ways.

It takes diligence, discipline and determination to create the habit of noticing these inner voices, and lovingly attending to them by utilizing the many leadership lessons we have been learning, so that these inner voices can come into greater balance, alignment and service to our Next Level Leadership.

Unless we do so, unattended inner voices can become tyrants who will either steal our energy and rob us of our motivation; or provide us with the energy and motivation to manifest their distorted goals into the world.

Next Level Leadership is born out of the ability to detect LeadershiT, and effectively work with it to turn it into the power of inspiration, motivation, energy, clarity and purpose.
